TENUTA MARA

The story of the Tenuta Mara or Mara Wine Estate began on the day that Giordano Emendatori decided to fulfil his great passion, a passion for wine, devoting himself to the planning and construction of an estate, naming it after his wife Mara, 'She who has always been an important support in all the adventures of my life.'

Tenuta Marais not a simple vineyard, but a complex and whole organism which, from its beginning, embraces the holistic principles of biodynamic farming.

After buying the land in 2000, five years had to pass before they could implant the vineyard: seven hectares exposed to the gentle sun of Romagna. An area – next to the hilltop village of San Clemente – dedicated to a great Italian vine: The Sangiovese.
